"CHRONICLES OF PROGRESS, INNOVATION, AND INDUSTRY ENGAGEMENT"

- Established in 1854, COEP is India's 3rd oldest engineering institute
- Department of management studies Launched in the academic year 2020-21, our Department of Management has been on an inspiring journey of transformation and impact. In just a short span, we've evolved into a dynamic hub of learning, leadership, and innovation. What sets us apart is the powerhouse behind our progress—our extraordinary faculty, a blend of seasoned industry leaders and passionate researchers who bring real-world wisdom into the classroom.
- Here, learning goes beyond textbooks. It's about cultivating a growth mindset, encouraging bold ideas, and nurturing a spirit of collaboration. Our students, faculty, and staff work as one cohesive community, creating an ecosystem where potential is discovered, developed, and celebrated.
- With a strong commitment to building the business leaders of tomorrow, we champion a student-driven culture—empowering future managers to think critically, act ethically, and lead confidently. All of this thrives under the visionary guidance of COEP Technological University, pushing us to aim higher with every stride.
- As a COEPian MBA is M- Mindset B-believe and A-Aspiration

💡 Why Management Digest?

- To keep our stakeholders connected and informed
- To showcase success stories and highlight achievements
- To foster a culture of continuous learning and engagement
- To amplify the voice of students, faculty, and alumni.
